

WISH ID# _____

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The District of Columbia Department of Health has a program called PROJECT WISH—Women Into Staying Healthy. Project WISH offers women free breast and cervical cancer screenings. Screening for breast cancer includes getting a yearly breast exam and a mammogram, which is an x-ray of the breast. Screening for cervical cancer includes a pelvic exam and a Pap test, which is when the doctor or nurse takes a sample from the cervix.

INFORMED CONSENT

I CONSENT FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION

- I understand that my doctors, clinics and/or hospitals may give information about my mammograms, breast exams, Pap tests, pelvic exams and any related care to Project WISH.
- I understand that Project WISH will help my doctors give me better care and make sure that I get my test results. It will also help make sure that I know when to come back for regular check-ups.
- I understand that my information will not be given to anyone not related to the project. My records will be locked up when not used by the staff. Any reports printed by Project WISH will not use my name.
- I understand that I can leave Project WISH and take back my consent to release information at any time.

I agree to take part in Project WISH. I have read the description above and have had a chance to ask questions about the program.
