

Providence 2015 Fall AIDS/HIV Symposium
Ross Auditorium
October 29, 2015 – 17:00pm to 20:30 pm

Theme: Working and Hoping for our Community to be Safe from the HIV/AIDS Epidemic

Symposium Agenda

Welcome and Introduction

Dr. Jose Bordon, Providence Hospital, Chief, Section of Infectious Diseases

The Voice of the Community against the HIV epidemic

Dr. Charles Samenow, George Washington University
GENDER IDENTITY & HIV EPIDEMIC - HIV & Youth

Michael Kharfen, Senior Deputy Director, DC DOH HAHSTA
Sex Health, The DC HAHSTA perspective

Round table discussion – Q & A

Providers in Action against the HIV epidemic

Dr. Henry Masur, Director of NIH, Critical Care
The HIV epidemic trend in DC, challenges and needs

Dr. Ian Frank, Univ. of Pennsylvania, school of Medicine
General Medicine Practices for HIVAIDS

Robert Redfield, M.D. Univ. Maryland, Chief of the Division of Infectious Diseases
Color With HIV Infection

Round table discussion – Q & A –

Closing and Remarks

Dr. Jose Bordon, Providence Hospital

To end at 20.30

This program provides 3 CME credits